Tie-breaking rules will be applied to determine first place only. Contestants tying for second (2nd) through fiftieth (50th) place will equally split aggregate prize money for the respective place. In the event of a first place tie, the first place prize winner will be determined based on the contestant that accumulated the most contest points during the final three (3) weeks of the regular season. If total points accumulated during the final three (3) weeks are equal then the tie-breaker will revert to week 14, then week 13, then week 12, etc. to determine the first place prize winner.
